

SPEAKER APPLICATION

Thank you for your interest in speaking at Frequent Traveler University, a project of the Frequent Traveler Education Foundation, a 501(c)3. In order to speak at one of our events, we require this application to be filled out in it's entirety. Once filled out, please email this application to ftuniversity@ftuniversity.com and a member of our team will be in contact with you should we be interested.

Name: _____ City: _____ State: _____
Email: _____ Phone: _____

Blog/Website/Company: _____

How many Facebook followers do you have? _____

How many Twitter followers do you have? _____

How many daily readers/visitors/clients/consumers do you have? _____

Are you willing to promote FTU on your website and social platforms if selected to speak? If so, describe how you would do so.

Please list all previous travel related speaking engagements:

Have you been feature in any major news media, online websites or other publications? If so, which?

What do you consider your expertise or very knowledgable topics?

If you were to design 3 session names for an upcoming FTU event, what would you title them?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

How many miles did you travel last calendar year? _____

How many nights did you stay in a hotel last calendar year? _____

What airline and hotel elite statuses do you currently hold, if any?

In no more than 500 words, please tell us why you are interested in speaking at an FTU and what value you bring to our program.

What session topics are you interested in speaking about, if selected?

The Frequent Traveler Education Foundation is a non-profit organization. Do you require compensation for your participation in our events?

If selected to speak, you'll be asked to speak for no less than approximately five sessions per event. Are you okay with this?

Describe your teaching style, and how you would present information if selected to teach at a Frequent Traveler University.

What is your best "travel hack" that you'd share with participants?
